

Women’s and Gender Studies Department WGS Major - 44 Units

Core Requirements – 21 units

WGS 280	Women’s Bodies: Health and Body Image (GE, category E)
or WGS 285	Men and Masculinity (GE, category E)
or WGS 350	Gender, Sexuality & Family (GE, category E)	3 units
WGS 375	Gender, Race and Class (GE, category D1; Ethnic Studies)	3 units
WGS 425	Feminist Research Methods (Fall only)	4 units
WGS 475	Contemporary Feminist Theory (Fall only)	4 units
WGS 485	Senior Seminar (Spring only)	4 units
Electives	Any combination of courses on gender, highly encouraged to be from WGS.	3 units

Disciplinary Concentration – 15 units

Students must specialize in one discipline (defined as any recognized major or minor in the University) by completing 15 units of course work in that area as follows:

1. A course on gender (3-4 units). Examples include: Sociology of Gender, Women Writers, Gender and Archeology or Women in U.S. History.
2. An introductory (3-4 units) course in the discipline (may be lower or upper division).
3. Additional upper division units (8-10 units) in the disciplinary area chosen in consultation with a WGS advisor.

Skills Application in Education or Human Services – 8 units

WGS 390	Gender, Work and Organization (Spring only)	4 units
WGS 395/499	CIP/Internships	4 units

Internships must be completed in an appropriate organization selected in consultation with a WGS advisor.

For more information, please visit the Women’s & Gender Studies Dept. Office in Rachel Carson Hall (RCH) #18 or call 664-2840. Students should make an appointment by contacting:

Dr. Lena McQuade	Office: RCH 31	Phone: 707/664-2950
Dr. Don Romesburg	Office: RCH 11	Phone: 707/664-2574
Dr. Charlene Tung	Office: RCH 32	Phone: 707/664-2086