Internships with the US Postal Inspection Service will provide students with exposure to experience in a federal criminal justice agency. It is expected that through observing and participating in the operation of the Agency, the student will acquire insights into the relationship between criminal justice theory as evolved in the academic setting and the applications of those theories in the community served by the Agency. Such opportunities are of significant value to the student, whether he or she is simply seeking a liberal education, intends to undertake graduate academic study or will enter a professional practice in criminal justice.

Specific tasks, duties or research opportunities available vary depending on time of internship. However, duties may include filing, photocopying, sorting, assisting Inspectors with evidence handling, conducting interviews and research, and developing databases.

Intern must submit to and obtain Sensitive Security Clearance, complete all required paperwork, submit to a pre-employment drug screening, and must be a US citizen and enrolled in a an educational institute.

The internship is unpaid. Work hours are flexible but there is a minimum of 10 Hours per week. Intern will be assigned to a team of Postal Inspectors and will assist Inspectors and Analysts as necessary.

This internship will be located within the office of the US Postal Inspection Service, San Francisco Division located at:
390 Main Street, 3rd Floor
San Francisco, CA 94105
