Lesson 1: Withdrawal Balance View

Navigation: Campus Community>Student Services Ctr (Student)

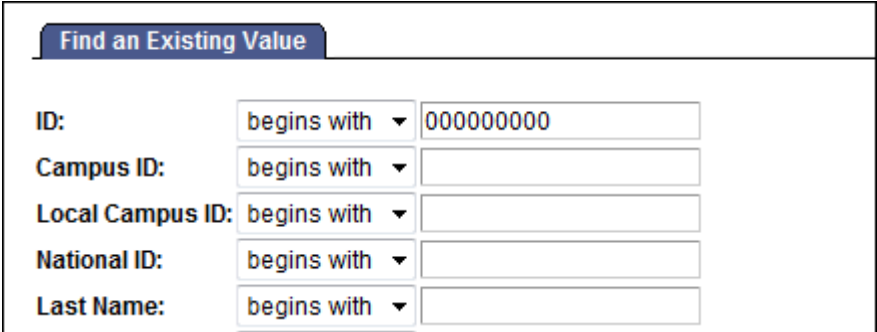

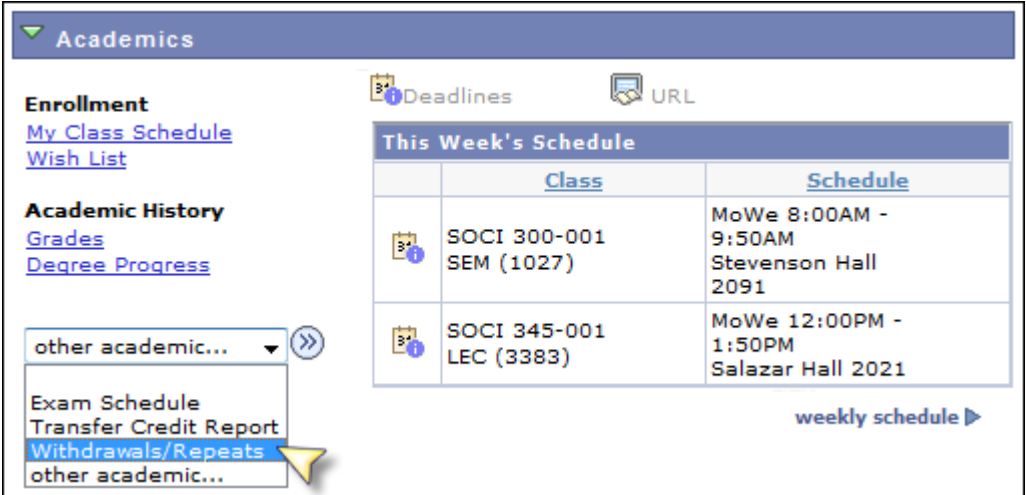

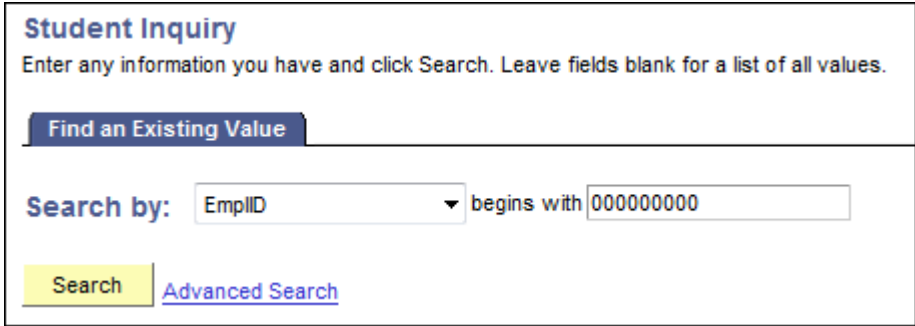

Introduction: The student withdrawal limits are now set to a total of 18 units pursuant to CSU Executive Order 1037. This means a student will be blocked from withdrawing from a course if that withdrawal will put them over the 18 unit limit. The student record system has been setup to enforce this effective Fall 2010 forward. Any student who has 10 or more withdrawals in their history beginning Fall 2010 forward will see a pop up window of balance limits when attempting to enroll showing the number of withdrawal units they have remaining. This count starts for the Fall 2010 enrollment period and does not include withdrawal history prior to Fall 2010.

For more information about Sonoma State University’s Course Withdrawal Policy, please visit <http://www.sonoma.edu/UAffairs/policies/withdrawalfromcourses.htm>.

The table below will outline how to view your balances.

Lesson 2: Repeat Balance View

Navigation: Campus Community>Student Services Ctr (Student)

Introduction: Students are limited to a total of 28 units for repeated course attempts. The first attempt at repeating a course is Grade Replacement (also called Grade Forgiveness). The grade achieved in this second attempt of a course will replace any units earned on the first attempt as well as apply the grade received to the GPA calculation, dismissing the first attempt. Students may have 16 units for Grade Replacement.

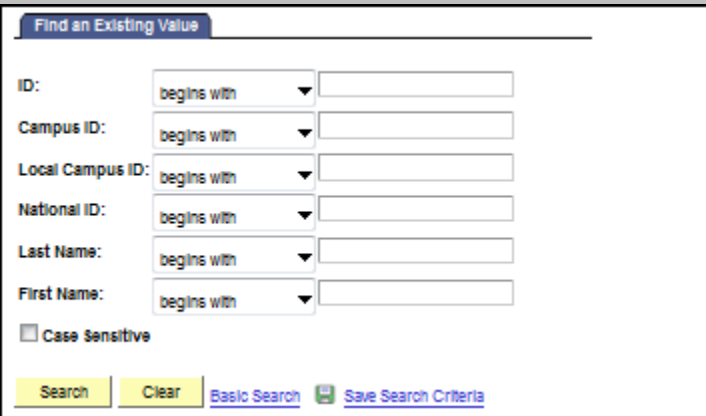

By default, the second repeat (third attempt at a course or greater) of a course will be averaged into the students GPA, but will not count towards units to degree completion. The units earned on the second attempt will still apply. Students may have 12 units for Grade Averaging.

These counts begin Fall 2010 and will count going forward. When a student has repeated 16 units (or more) a message will be displayed in Student Self Service showing the number of repeated units and how many they have remaining.

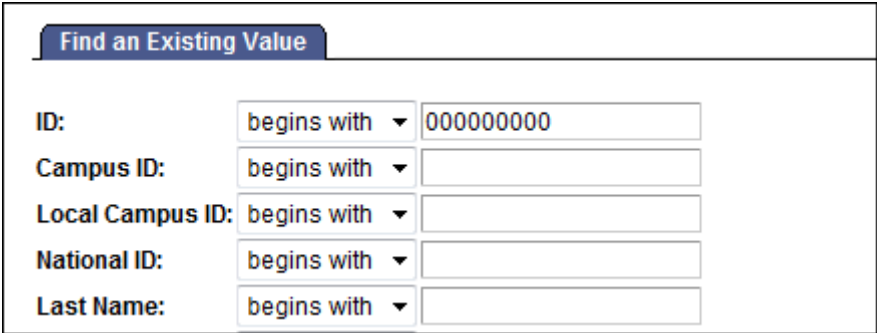

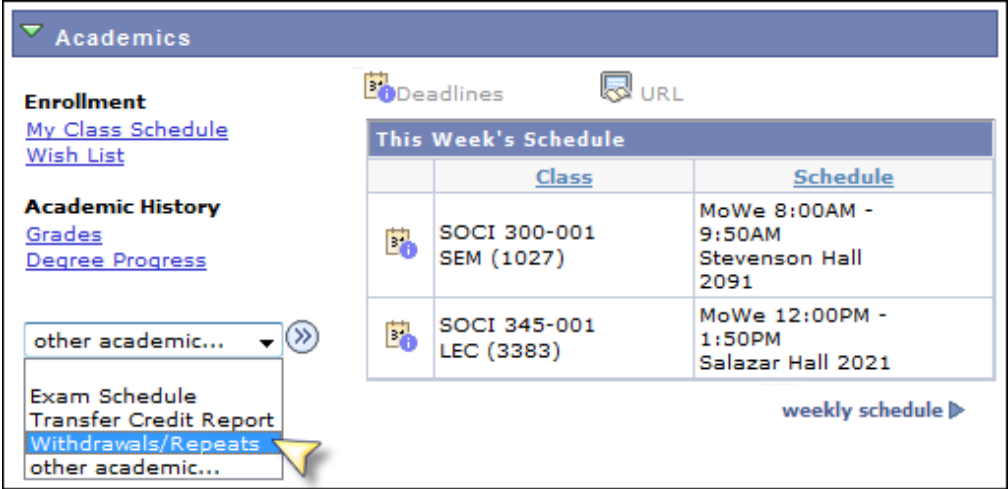

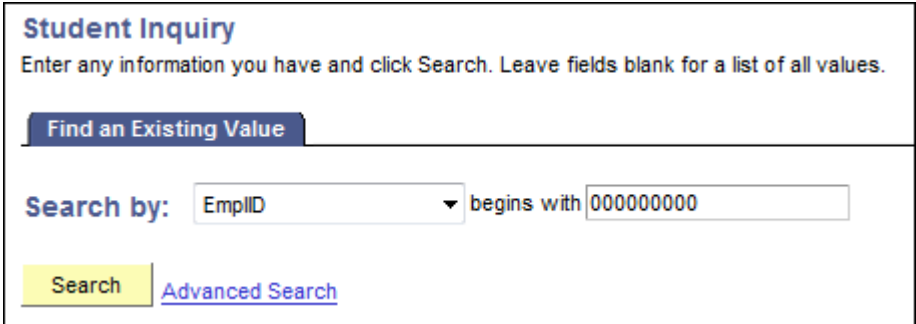

Also, if you receive a C or better at the end of the semester and have pre-registered for the same course in a future semester, you will be dropped from the course for the future semester.

For more information about Sonoma State University’s Course Withdrawal Policy, please visit http://sonoma.edu/ar/records/course_repeat.shtml.
