Rooted in rebellion. Commitment to regenerate.

A pioneer in regenerative winemaking, Fetzer Vineyards continues its legacy of hard work, rebellious thinking, and crafting wines that make a difference. Since its founding in 1968, Fetzer Vineyards has consistently developed and implemented practices that are environmentally friendly, socially responsible, and ultimately regenerative, becoming the world’s largest winery to receive B Corporation certification, in 2015. B Corp certification standards, developed by the non-profit B Lab, are widely recognized as the highest standards for social and environmental responsibility in Business. Fetzer Vineyards strives for the perfect relationship between land, climate, and vine to regenerate communities and bring wines or remarkable quality and character to the table.
