

German 102

Second Semester: Contemporary Germany

Interested in learning more about German culture, and – while you are doing it – learning more about your own? And having fun?

NEULICH BEIM PC-DOKTOR:

How will you learn? Through

- German music (i.e. pop/rap)
- authentic footage from German TV
- short stories, cartoons, poems
- film clips, & other cultural materials

hair	Haar	friend	Freund	hat	Hut
moon	Mond	tea	Tee	fire	Feuer	light	Licht
lamp	Lampe	shoe	Schuh	bed	Bett
bread	Brot	card	Karte	milk	Milch	glass	Glas
banana	Banane	sun	Sonne	elephant	Elefant

Mondays and Wednesdays 12:00-1:50 p.m.
Dr. Michaela Grobbel

This course will help you refine the skills and knowledge that you have developed during your study of German so far. You will improve your listening and speaking skills in German, increase your vocabulary, develop effective reading strategies, and polish your writing skills. In a variety of communicative situations, you will practice spoken and written German regularly and intensively. Requirement: concurrent enrollment in GER 102L.