

German 101

First Semester: The Personal World

Do you want to study in Germany?

At the oldest university in Germany, in one of the most beautiful cities? Interested in learning a foreign language and stretching your mind? Learning about another culture?

Then this course is for YOU!

Have fun learning a new language and increase your academic and professional opportunities at the same time. Learn how to communicate in German, and become a citizen of the world!

Mondays and Wednesdays 10-11:50

Dr. Michaela Grobbel

Includes the best of the old and the new in language learning techniques. This course is designed to advance students to early fluency. Actual use of an internationally applicable, idiomatic German will proceed in increasing degrees from the very first day. Requirement: Concurrent enrollment in GER 101L
