

German 302

Advanced German Studies

Make yourself competitive in the job market, and earn a

Minor in German!

German 302 will also prepare you to pass the internationally recognized "Zertifikat Deutsch." This certificate has helped many students to pursue careers in fields such as international relations, business, economics, and marketing as well as a number of other areas related to European affairs.

In this course, you will

- learn to communicate meaningfully in German
- learn more about contemporary politics, history, film, literature, and fine art in reunified Germany
- review German grammar thoroughly
- learn to think critically about the German-speaking cultures

Mondays and Wednesdays 10:00-11:50 a.m.
Dr. Kate Foley-Beining

Extensive practice and discussion in German of grammatical principles, idioms, vocabulary and style. Normally, one written composition will be assigned per week. By the end of the semester, students' mastery of German should enable them to earn the "Zertifikat Deutsch als Fremdsprache." Prerequisite: GER 202 and consent of instructor.