The SSU German Club “Gemütlichkeit” presents...

Das Leben der Anderen: The Lives of Others

In 1980's East Berlin, a high-profile couple is kept under surveillance by the Stasi, East Germany's secret police. The successful playwright Georg Dreyman (Sebastian Koch) and his actress girlfriend Christa-Maria Sieland (Martina Gedeck) are having their every move watched. They find their lives, their friends, family, and the surveyor Hauptmann Gerd Wiesler (Ulrich Mühe). An excellent view into the lives of people that lived through this time period in East Berlin. The film received an Oscar for Best Foreign Language Film.
