

Sonoma State University Jewish Studies Program Spring 2010 Lecture Series

www.sonoma.edu/jewishstudies

ALL LECTURES ARE FREE TO THE PUBLIC

MARCH 1st

(Monday)

7PM

Nitzhia Shaked

"The History of Jerusalem"

The Cooperage

MARCH 8th

(Monday)

3PM

Paula Birnbaum

"Jewish Female Artists in Interwar Paris"

Student Union Multi-Purpose Room

MARCH 15th

(Monday)

7PM

David Biale

"Not in the Heavens: Is There a Tradition of Jewish Secular Thought?"

University Commons

APRIL 12th

(Monday)

7PM

Paula Daccarett

"The History and Diversity of Mediterranean Jewries"

The Cooperage

MAY 5th

(Wednesday)

7PM

Henry Shreibman

"Judaism and Islam: History and Hope"

Student Union Multi-Purpose Room

Generous sponsorship for the lecture series has been provided by The Koret Foundation

For information regarding parking, the lecture series, or Sonoma State University's Jewish Studies Program, please contact Michael Ezra, Director of Jewish Studies, 707-664-3293 or ezra@sonoma.edu.

A daily parking permit ($2.50) is required to park in SSU non-reserved parking lots. Permits are not valid in reserved parking lots. Some permit machines accept quarters only.