

Directions to Galbreath Wildlands Preserve

30,720 Elkhorn Road, Yorkville (61 miles from SSU):

From the South:

- Take Hwy 101 North to Cloverdale.
- Just after Cloverdale, Exit at Hwy 128 – Fort Bragg/Mendocino. Turn left, cross under freeway. Go < 1 mile.
- Turn Right on Hwy 128-West. Go 13.9 miles. (If you get to the town of Yorkville, you've gone too far).
- Turn Left on Elkhorn Road. Go 5.6 miles.

Elkhorn Road is a county road, good condition and gravel. You will pass Lawson's Christmas Trees on the right and a small gravel mine on the left. At 4.5 miles, you will cross the Foppiano Bridge. Directly after crossing a second wooden bridge (unnamed), you will see the Galbreath entrance gate and Preserve Sign on your right.

- Please close the gate behind you. (If you need to park a car on Elkhorn Road, there is a gate to the right of the main entrance. Please open it and park behind the gate.)
