

- Jack Burrows is Director of Executive Services for the Association of California Healthcare Districts (ACHD). He has 30 years of healthcare experience.
- Prior to ACHD, Jack was a Consultant for a prestigious consulting firm that specialized in Healthcare. Jack has served as Vice President of Operations in hospitals ranging from 150 to 731 beds. He was the Chief Executive Officer of a rural hospital and the Chief Operating Officer of the second largest Health Care District in California where he also served as Administrator of a 344 bed hospital. He is an innovator in revenue generation and has been very successful in revenue cycle analysis and productivity improvements.
- Jack holds an MBA from Fairleigh Dickinson University and a BA from St. Bonaventure University.