

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE LIVING/LEARNING PROGRAM
2008-09 Academic Year

FYE Living/Learning Program (FYE) spans over the entire academic year, (Fall 2008 and Spring 2009 semesters), connecting the residential living experience to UNIV 150A and 150B. To gain complete credit, students must remain in the program for the entire academic year. A total of nine (9) academic units will be awarded for this program. UNIV 150A and 150B fulfill the requirements for GE areas A1 and A3. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until the program is filled.

ASSIGNMENT REQUEST FOR FYE (FRESHMAN YEAR EXPERIENCE) LIVING AREA (Must be accompanied a by a Housing License Agreement)

Full Name:..... Seawolf ID#.....

Email address:..... Contact Phone #:.....

Please indicate your first and second room type choice for the FYE living area. Acceptance into the FYE program requires students to live in the FYE living area, unless an exception is granted by the Director of Residential Life. Room assignments are determined by the received date of the Housing Request form. A completed License Agreement and first payment are required in order to be eligible for the campus housing FYE program.

This request will override any previous assignment request submitted. All efforts will be made to fulfill your requests on this form; however, we cannot guarantee your first choice. Therefore, if your first choice is not available we will place you in your second choice.
