SUMMER INTERNSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

PRIME TIME SPEAKERS BUREAU is a full service national speakers bureau in the business of locating and arranging for high profile external speakers from business, motivation, technology and healthcare to address corporate meetings.

We are offering a semester internship to a college student who would like to learn about the professional speech industry.

Prefer a business, marketing/advertising or communication studies major. This person needs to be comfortable with a computer, investigative and creative. Website design/maintenance experience is a plus but not necessary.

This person must have a great telephone voice, be able to contact clients and speakers to ask questions in a professional manner to obtain information regarding events, speaker fees, topics etc.

Generous commissions ($1,000 per booking) will be paid to those who generate speech business from client listings. Can work from home with very flexible hours.

To apply, please send a brief cover letter and/or resume to Julie@primetimespeakers.com

Thanks so much,
