

Marketing Intern for TV & Film School (Burbank)

About the Job:

If you enjoy a high level of involvement with creative, passionate people who want a life-changing career in entertainment, then this is for you...

We are pleased to offer an unpaid internship to work with a Video Symphony representative on major college campuses that have film schools or film departments. Internships are very important to your school and most colleges desire to have a long list of internships for their students because it adds credibility to their programs.

About Video Symphony:

Video Symphony is a world-leading training center for Hollywood-style digital Post-production. We train students on Video Editing for TV and Film (TV shows, major motion pictures, independent films), Audio (music, music videos, music for films), Graphic Animation/3D (video games, animated films, advertisements), and New Media Video (institutional video ads, web flash presentations, cell phone applications, etc). When someone goes through one of our programs, they come out being able to compete for jobs against 10 to 15 year veterans. After they complete a program, we actually place them in jobs between 70% and 90% of the time depending on the program. We have an excellent reputation as a post production training school because of our curriculum and state of the art editing equipment, but also because our instructors are extremely experienced. Most of them are highly decorated with real world experience – winners of Oscars, Grammys, and Emmys.

Additionally, we have excellent relationships with most of the top employers that call us frequently and ask that we send them our students. We don't just train our students in Avid, Final Cut Pro, Maya, Adobe, Cinema 4D, and Pro Tools, we actually help them connect for a career. Some of the employers that we place our students at include Disney, Warner Brothers, NBC, Paramount, E-Entertainment Network, Nickelodeon, MTV Network, and many others.

Our school is located in dynamic Downtown Burbank in a beautiful new building with lots of open space, high ceilings, and excitement. More information may be found at www.videosymphony.com. Also you can check out the new web TV show at www.videosymphonyTV.com to see some of the creative ways we are reaching more potential students.
