

Southern Oregon Wine Institute ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR/ENOLOGY INSTRUCTOR

Umpqua Community College, located in beautiful Southern Oregon's 100 Valleys of the Umpqua, has an exciting opportunity for a new Associate Director of Southern Oregon Wine Institute (SOWI)/Enology Instructor. This is a new position in the college, which offered its first degree-track classes in Fall 2008.

The Associate Director (AD) will report to the Director of SOWI and will develop, deliver, and promote Enology courses for the Associate's degree in Viticulture and Enology. The AD will also participate in promoting the Institute, develop and deliver seminars, workshops and symposia relevant to the regional wine industry and will oversee the design, development and management of a new teaching winery, tasting room, and commercial scale winery incubator.

For the qualified candidate, this is an opportunity to get in on the ground floor of a new program of instruction, to help build a new winery and contribute to the growth of a thriving wine industry in beautiful Southern Oregon.

Bachelor's in Enology or closely related field required. Graduate degree preferred. Associate's degree and at least 5 years of professional winemaking experience may be substituted for the Bachelor's degree. Professional winemaking experience required. Program/resource development, Community College teaching and/or Extension Service experience preferred.

This opportunity offers an outstanding salary and benefit package. Position open until filled. First review date of March 1, 2010. Tentative start date March 29, 2010.

For details on this opportunity and the SOWI see UCC's website at www.umpqua.edu.
