

North Bay Organization

A North Bay organization is seeking a full-time sales and marketing person to build relationships with existing members and sell memberships to new clients. Good people skills, excellent organizational skills, and a genuine interest in people are needed to be successful in this position.

This is a good entry-level position for those interested in sales and/or fundraising/development work. Reporting directly to the CEO, this person will be closely trained and mentored by a successful, experienced professional.

Pay: $12-13/hour
