Title: Chief Intern

Description: I'm looking for a driven hard working student who is willing to learn on the fly and stay organized at one of the fastest growing boutique wineries in the country. This internship will consist of various projects from wine club activities to event planning to International business and anywhere in between. It will be chaotic and demanding but extremely fun and educational. Past interns have all gone on to successful high level jobs in the wine industry based on the experience and connections gained during their time at Foppoli. Basic wine knowledge is helpful but you will learn on the job.
