

Image Marketing - Image Motorsports Division

Marketing and/ or Graphic Design Intern

If you are a design or marketing intern at Sonoma State University or Santa Rosa Junior College, and you are passionate about marketing and motorsports, then keep reading.

Image Marketing has an immediate need for an intern to help our growing staff meet client expectations.

You will not be getting any of us coffee or lunch, you will be working with drivers from the NASCAR Sprint Cup series, and the NASCAR Camping World Truck Series.

We also have accounts in the American Le Mans Series, Grand-Am, and the Indy Car series among others.

It's not all racing, there are several corporate and real estate accounts we'll need help on as well, so come ready to work.

Applicants must have a 3.3+ GPA, have average to above average writing skills, high familiarity with the adobe creative suites, spend too much time on social networks, and possess an extremely strong work ethic. Also, you must be a racing fan. No exceptions!

Meet the aforementioned requirements and aren't afraid to work, then send resumes and cover letters detailing your awesomeness to eric@imagemotorsportsgrp.com.

Portfolio examples are welcome as well, but please keep the file size down below 2Mb.

About Image Marketing:

Image Marketing is not your average marketing firm. We were founded by a diverse set of business and creative professionals to ensure that the work we perform for your business is both relevant and cost effective. With clients as diverse as professional NASCAR Sprint Cup drivers to small town taxi services, image marketing has the proven ability to support national and local companies equally.

<http://imagemotorsportsgrp.com/>

The position is unpaid, but should qualify for school credit or just look really great on a resume. There're quite a few perks available as well.