

Women’s & Gender Studies Department WGS Minor – 16 Units

Core Courses – 10 units

WGS 280	Women’s Bodies: Health and Body Image	}	3 units
OR	(GE Category E)
WGS 285	Men and Masculinity
OR	(GE Category E)
WGS 350	Gender, Sexuality and Family
	(GE Category E)
WGS 375	Gender, Race and Class		3 units
	(GE Category D1, Ethnic Studies)
WGS 475	Contemporary Feminist Thought		4 units

Supporting Courses – 6 units

Minors in Women’s and Gender Studies must complete at least two courses from at least two of the following five categories for a total of 6 units. These courses are selected in consultation with a WGS advisor.

Note: Courses on women and gender offered in other departments can fulfill these requirements.

1. Women and Gender in American Society
2. Women and Gender in the Humanities
3. Biological and Psychological Perspective on Women or Gender
4. Women or Gender in International and Cross-Cultural Perspective
5. Special Topics on Women or Gender

For more information, please visit the Women’s & Gender Studies Dept. Office in Rachel Carson Hall (RCH) #18 or call 664-2840. Students should make an appointment by contacting a WGS professor.

Dr. Lena McQuade	Office: RCH 31	Phone: 707/664-2950
Dr. Don Romesburg	Office: RCH 11	Phone: 707/664-2574
Dr. Charlene Tung	Office: RCH 32	Phone: 707/664-2086