This form provides you with a checklist of steps to follow when preparing for and taking the WEPT exam. Remember, being knowledgeable and prepared will help ease your test anxiety and help you pass the exam.

BEFORE you take the WEPT test, complete the following steps:

☐ Check out the TIPS for Passing the WEPT Sheet. When registering for the exam in the Writing Center (Schulz 1103), you will be given a sheet titled, Tips for Passing the WEPT. Spend a considerable amount of time studying this sheet and underlining or highlighting the information that is most relevant for your needs.

☐ Thoroughly explore the WEPT website and read the WEPT handbook linked at http://www.sonoma.edu/writingcenter/wept/
   Read through the WEPT sample essays and study the scoring rubric.

☐ Go to the Writing Center in Schulz 1103 and sign up for WEPT tutoring. During your 30-minute WEPT Tutoring appointment, you can discuss general test anxiety, how to prepare for the exam, and approaches to various WEPT prompts.

☐ Attend a WEPT Workshop. The Writing Center offers WEPT Workshops several times during the semester, usually the week before the WEPT testing week. These workshops are FREE and no sign-up is required. The workshop is two days, one hour per day, and it is recommended that you attend both days.

☐ Take a WEPT practice test and sign up for a WEPT practice exam tutorial in the Writing Center.

☐ Take the WEPT exam.

If you don’t pass the WEPT the first time...

☐ Call the WEPT office at (707) 664-2058 and schedule a WEPT advising appointment. We have a limited number of WEPT advisors and times. You will be asked to complete the preparation steps listed above BEFORE you will be referred to an advisor for an individual appointment.
